

WORKSHOP MUNAY-KI

Living in Harmony from the Heart

The Munay-ki gives you the possibility to follow the path of the wisdom of the heart, to really step into your power and bring to manifest more into your life, then you right now dare to dream of.

You will receive all nine initiations that empowers you to live your life in harmony. In the workshop we will practice transmitting these rites together. You will also experience ceremonies, rituals and backgrounds of the Inka shamanism.

These rites source from the Andean indigenous Q'eros. They are descendents of the Inka and they live in the highlands of Peru.

LIVING IN HARMONY FROM YOUR HEART

People are attracted to the Munay-ki, because it is a powerful tool to change their life quickly in a positive way. You embark on a healing-journey, that allows you to step beyond fear, into Love. It might change your perception in many ways so it could improve your relationship with others, your work, balance in life. It has the potential to improve your health, your self-esteem, your inner-peace, your trust in life, your creative powers...to the point that you will experience more harmony, joy and abundance in your life.

Be Welcome in this workshop of opening and connecting of giving and receiving of energy and intention of fire and light

Your Location and date 2013

José de Graaf, trained as shaman, from Holland, received these initiations directly from the Q'ero-shamans from Peru in 2007. "It is my passion to share these initiations to empower as many people as possible. In the book, I wrote about the Munay-ki, I describe, how these profound and powerful rites contribute to more personal wellbeing and to more harmony on and with Mother Earth."

Contact for information: See the website: www.kanexia.nl

The Munay-ki: a gift of the Inka, to follow the path of the heart

